REBECCA M. HERZIG is the Christian A. Johnson Professor of Interdisciplinary Studies and Chair of the Program in Women and Gender Studies at Bates College. Her teaching, research, and activism all seek to engage broad audiences in reflection on the social dimensions of science, technology, and medicine. Recent publications include a special issue of the Lancet on "Medicalisation in the 21st Century," co-edited with Jonathan Metzl, and THE NATURE OF DIFFERENCE: SCIENCES OF RACE IN THE UNITED STATES FROM JEFFERSON TO GENOMICS, co-edited with Evelyn Hammonds. Her latest book, PLUCKED: A HISTORY OF HAIR REMOVAL, is now available from NYU Press. She has served on the executive councils of the Society for the Social Studies of Science, the Society for the History of Technology, and the International Committee for the History of Technology, among other professional and community boards.

From 3 to 4:15 pm, copies of PLUCKED will be available for purchase. Price is $29.95 plus sales tax.

Attendance at the Thinking Gender conference panels and keynote address is free. A registration fee of $35 provides access to the conference workshops, networking lunch, and keynote cocktail reception; you'll also receive a Thinking Gender tote bag and CSW coffee mug. For the complete program and updates on the conference, visit www.csw.ucla.edu.
