

The Jerry and Lorraine Factor Grant Program in Violence Prevention
& The UCLA Bixby Center on Population and Reproductive Health
Proudly Present:

Breaking the Silence:
The National Movement
Against Campus Sexual Assault

Sofie Karasek

Tuesday, February 9th, 2016
5:00-6:00 PM

Location: NRB Auditorium
(Across from the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health)

Sofie Karasek is the Director of Education and a co-founder of the national survivor advocacy organization, End Rape on Campus (EROC).

She is a leading advocate for California's groundbreaking affirmative consent law and her work has been featured in The Wall Street Journal, The Guardian, CNN, and Bloomberg Businessweek. She was also featured in the documentary film "The Hunting Ground."

UCLA
FIELDING
SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

UCLA The Bixby Center
on Population and Reproductive Health

A free dinner with Ms. Karasek will take place on February 9th at 7 PM.
If interested in attending the dinner or meeting with her before the talk, please contact Ruth Hsu <ruthrhsu@ucla.edu>.
Spots are limited and will be given on a first-come first-served basis.