

FACULTY RESEARCH GRANTS

FOR UCLA LADDER FACULTY

The Center for the Study of Women offers grants to all UCLA ladder faculty for research development, new project development that may lead to external funding opportunities through CSW, and project completion that could be considered for CSW publications (policy briefs, research reports).

Preference will be given to junior faculty and projects that link to CSW's current research projects (Chemical Entanglements, Gender and Water, Feminist Anti-Carceral Studies, Sexual Violence and Intersectionality). For more information regarding CSW's current research projects, visit csw.ucla.edu/cswresearch.

DEADLINE

MONDAY, MAY 4, 2020

AMOUNT

$1500 - $3000

CRITERIA

- Applicants must be UCLA tenure-track faculty and can apply for support for research projects on gender, sexuality, and/or women's issues.
- Faculty are not eligible to receive a CSW Faculty Research Grant (formerly known as the CSW Faculty Development Grant) within three years of their receipt of an earlier one.
- Recipients must agree to the following:
 - Submit a final report describing the project outcomes.
 - Acknowledge CSW in all public informational materials and publications resulting from the grant.
 - Provide an article or blog post for a CSW publication.
 - Provide one of the following services based on CSW need: 1) Serve on an awards committee or 2) Moderate a panel at the Thinking Gender conference.

TO APPLY

The following documents are required:

1. Research Proposal (maximum 3 single-spaced page description that includes the title and an explanation of the proposed research)
2. Bibliography
3. Itemized Budget
4. Supporting Documents (quotes/invoices of Budget Items)
5. Curriculum Vitae

To apply, visit:

csw.ucla.edu/funding/faculty-grants

For questions, contact Management Services Officer Kristina Magpayo Nyden at kristina@women.ucla.edu.